

SPEAKING & WORSHIP BOOKING INFORMATION

Thank you so much for your interest in me potentially joining you for your upcoming event! It's such a joy for me to serve others through speaking, teaching, and leading worship! I would be thrilled to help out in any way I can, if at all possible. Over the years, as an event planner for local churches, districts, schools, retreats, and conferences, I know what it's like to tackle the great challenge of all the details you are faced with in planning a successful event. This informational page has been designed to answer the most frequently asked questions I have received and to help expedite your planning as you assess if I'd be a fit for your organization!

BIO:

Carrie Wisehart can best be described as creative, energetic, and in relentless pursuit of Jesus Christ. She is a mom, wife, worship leader, song writer, prayer warrior, author, high school educator, and speaker. In every area of leadership Carrie's life reflects her passion for knowing God and leading others into His life changing presence.

With the use of interactive methods, media, and humor, Carrie communicates the love of Jesus in a relevant, adventure-filled, and transformational way.

Carrie holds degrees in Vocal Performance and English Education from Olivet Nazarene University as well as a master's degree in theatre from the Ohio State University. The most important people in her life are her husband and daughter. Carrie has been a tremendous ministry partner to her husband, Brady for 17 years. They are currently serving in Fort Wayne, Indiana, where Brady is senior pastor at Grace Point Church of the Nazarene.

Carrie's tremendous heart for the local, district, and general church, for the school, classroom and community give her a unique perspective to serve the people at your event.

FREQUENTLY REQUESTED TOPICS & THEMES:

Best Day Ever Adventure – This 1-4 session event challenges us to live the John 10:10 life that Jesus calls us to live. Living life to the fullest means choosing joy, building others up, remembering we are chosen, belonging to community, putting on our armor and more. So much more than a self-help mantra, living the Best Day Ever Adventure is the relevant, radical mission Jesus has for all of us.

Carrie has written a book that coincides with this theme. Ask about the possibility of including the book in your event fee!

Mirror, Mirror on the Wall - In this 1-4 session event based on 1 Corinthians 13:12 and Proverbs 23:7, we explore our true identities in Christ. By focusing on the grace of God and the way Jesus sees us instead of society's skewed ways of "being enough" we see who we really are in Christ.

Weird, Wild & Wow – Living a radical life for Jesus is weird, wild, and wonderful. This 1-3 session event focuses on our obedience in following Christ, surrendering to His will for us, and the excitement of sharing Jesus with a needy and hurting world.

Out Love in the Overflow - In order to share the love of Jesus with others, we have to be practicing the presence of the Holy Spirit. This 1-4 session event gives us practical tools for spending time with Jesus and then how to allow that love to overflow in our everyday lives with a watching world.

teachupsidedown: how to use multiple methods to reach every learner- In one or multiple sessions, Carrie gives practical tools for any classroom – whether it be Sunday School, small group, public or private schools, or even large groups. These workshops teach innovative, engaging teaching methods that grab different learners and help them to connect to whatever subject they are learning. Attendees are given materials that can be used with a variety of subjects, venues, age levels and learning styles.
